

David Houghton: A Musical Maestro

<https://youtu.be/oluLhi-OgT8>

Biography With over 25 years captivating audiences, David Houghton is a virtuoso musician renowned for his mastery of a diverse range of instruments, from the grandeur of the tuba to the intimacy of the classical guitar. His exceptional talent has graced prestigious stages worldwide, from the opulent halls of classical orchestras to the vibrant energy of theatrical productions.

Orchestral Brilliance: David's career reached new heights as a core member of the Johannesburg Philharmonic Orchestra, where his powerful tuba playing contributed to the ensemble's rich sonic tapestry. His ability to seamlessly blend classical and contemporary styles has made him a sought-after collaborator in various musical projects.

Stage Presence: Beyond the orchestral realm, David's magnetic stage presence has ignited audiences in acclaimed productions like "Chicago" and William Kentridge's avant-garde masterpiece, "Dancing With Dada." His ability to embody different musical characters has solidified his reputation as a versatile and dynamic performer.

Global Collaborations: David's musical journey has led him to collaborate with a diverse array of world-class artists, including Grammy-winning flautist Wouter Kellerman and the renowned Spanish jazz ensemble Sedajazz. His shared passion for music has resulted in groundbreaking performances and recordings that have garnered critical acclaim.

A Musical Odyssey: Returning to his roots in Port Elizabeth, David continues to explore new musical horizons. From soulful duets to high-energy collaborations, his music reflects the vibrant spirit of his hometown.

Location Port Elizabeth

Promo Link <https://youtu.be/oluLhi-OgT8>

