

Donovan Goliath

Biography

Meet Donovan David Goliath

Donovan David Goliath is a comedy sensation with a story as unique as his name. A Caucasian-looking coloured guy from Mthatha who speaks fluent Xhosa, Donovan's upbringing in the Transkei was anything but ordinary. Trading his lucrative advertising career for the stage, he turned his one-of-a-kind life experiences into stand-up comedy gold.

A Star is Born

Donovan's comedy journey began in September 2010 with his first-ever 4-minute, 35-second set at the Comedy Underground in Melville, Johannesburg. His performance had the audience in stitches, sparking a passion that led him to refine his craft and perform harder, better, faster, stronger.

Unique, Insightful, Hilarious

Donovan's act revolves around insightful storytelling and simple truths, brought to life with various characters and impersonations. As a relatively new face on the comedy circuit, he's already made a significant impact, performing at prestigious events like Blacks Only, Soweto Comedy Festival, 99% Xhosa Comedy, Zulu Comedy Corner, Jou Ma Se Comedy, Mzansi Fela Festival, AWEWednesday Comedy Jam, Tshwane Comedy Nights, and a 51-show, 3-month run for LOL at Gold Reef City.
