

Ethnix Afro Band

Biography Atmosphere, class and style - performing light jazzy, African and contemporary classics, this ensemble provides dynamic background music and entertainment for up-market events, dinners, cocktail functions and events where soft, sophisticated ambience is required. They represent a true authentic South African musical experience. The music ranges from soft, jazzy music such as "Summertime", "Misty" and "What a wonderful World" to African favourites such as Lirá's "Feel Good", "Meadowlands", "Pata Pata" "Emlanjeni" and Judith Sepuma's "A cry, A smile, A Dance". Some Kenny G numbers skillfully performed on the saxophone, complimented by the rich vocals of Nonhlanhla Mahlangu. Together with the Double Bass, and guitar, this ensemble has a full acoustic sound which completes any event. The guitarist plays some Jonathan Butler hits such as 7th Avenue with great showmanship.

They can perform background numbers as well as pick up the tempo later for more energetic Latin - American, Cuban and swing styles. Up-tempo African classics such as Ndihamba Nawe and Vulindlela lift the mood and get the fingers clicking. They travel over the country and has performed at the Royal Madikwe as special South African entertainment for international guests. The ensemble strives to perform music that suits a diverse cross-cultural audience and accommodates different styles of music. They were privileged to perform for Shanduka, Black Umbrellas as well as for Adopt a School organisation where President Cyril Ramaphosa was the guest of honour.
