Biography Global Beats, Crafted in Cape Town

GoodLuck isn't your average electronic band. This Cape Town trio ignites dance floors with a sound that blends infectious pop, driving house, and subtle nods to their South African roots.

Three Minds, One Groove. GoodLuck's music is a delicious stew. Each member brings unique flavours - Ben the producer throws in electronic spices, Juliet the vocalist adds soulful lyrics, and Tim on keys and sax infuses it all with global energy.

The Live Experience Redefined! Forget laptops and backing tracks. GoodLuck brings the full studio experience onstage, complete with drum machines, synths, and even a saxophone, for an electrifying live show unlike any other.

Taking the World by Storm. From Europe to Asia, GoodLuck has shared the stage with legends like Pharrell Williams and Groove Armada. Their infectious energy and chart-topping hits like "I've Been Thinking About You" have won them fans around the globe.

More Than Just Music. GoodLuck's music is about connection. They create the soundtrack to your life, whether it's a night out with friends or a moment of quiet reflection.

Join the Movement. GoodLuck isn't just a band, it's a feeling. With millions of streams and hundreds of shows under their belt, they're just getting started.
