

Nontuthuko Mhlungu

Biography Nontuthuko Mhlungu is an attorney turned brand and marketing specialist who is driven by her passion for guiding others on their journey to selfdiscovery and success. As a staunch advocate for empowerment, she helps individuals break free from limiting beliefs and obstacles that hinder their growth.

With over a decade of corporate experience, Nontuthuko draws on her legal background as an attorney and her extensive leadership roles in branding and marketing within the short-term insurance industry.

A passionate educator, she is a thought leader in personal and professional branding, a cornerstone of her offerings through her company, People With Purpose Consulting. This training and development firm was founded with the vision of empowering teams to thrive in the workplace.

When she's not conducting impactful training workshops, you can find Nontuthuko captivating audiences on stage as a corporate MC, facilitating engaging discussions, and delivering powerful keynote addresses.

Location

Promo Link

