Biography South Africa's hottest party band, Rubber Duc, proves their staying power isn't just a fad. Since their 2014 debut, they've racked up chart-topping hits like "Ain't Nobody Got Time For That" and "It's Alright," even landing the #1 spot on Jacaranda FM with "Through The Night."

Their success extends beyond the airwaves. Rubber Duc has secured two SAMA nominations, achieved an honourable mention in a prestigious international song writing competition, and rocked every major music festival in the country.

More than just catchy tunes, Rubber Duc creates music that unites. Their uplifting energy and diverse sound resonate with South Africans of all ages and backgrounds. "When people sing your music back," they say, "the message has connected."

Experience Rubber Duc's magic for yourself! Check out their unforgettable music videos on YouTube and catch them live at an upcoming show. From Milky Chance to Kirstenbosch Summer Concerts, they've shared the stage with the biggest names. Don't miss your chance to dance with Rubber Duc!
