

Saxy Sthe

<https://youtu.be/frctZscnWfw?si=4cDRcx3007CQWH26>

Biography Powerful Vocalist, Electrifying Performer

Saxy Sthe, born Sithembile Nontokozo Mfuphi, is a captivating vocalist who has taken the South African music scene by storm. Her journey began in Durban, where her talent was nurtured.

A Shining Star in 3 Tons of Fun: Saxy Sthe joined the renowned group 3 Tons of Fun in 2007, becoming a beloved member known for her dazzling performances and song writing skills. She recently contributed three original songs to their acclaimed album, "Larger Than Life." Together, they've become a mainstay on the corporate entertainment circuit, thrilling audiences across South Africa and internationally.

Sharing the Stage with Legends: Saxy Sthe's impressive career boasts performances alongside musical icons like Mariah Carey, Bebe Winans, Jonathan Butler, and Hugh Masekela. She's also collaborated with a vast array of South African stars, including Loyiso Bala, Yvonne Chaka Chaka, and Dr. Victor.

Global Performances and Recognition:

Her talent extends beyond borders. Saxy Sthe has graced stages in Paris, Thailand, Malaysia, and many African nations. Her captivating presence has also translated to television screens, with appearances in commercials for Marmite, Ocean Basket, and Spur. From 2011 to 2014, she further solidified her influence as a preliminary judge for the prestigious SA Idols competition.

Saxy Sthe is a guaranteed crowd-pleaser, bringing energy and talent to every performance.

Location Western Cape

Promo Link <https://youtu.be/frctZscnWfw?si=4cDRcx3O07CQWH26>

