Biography The Morning After is a high-energy party function band consisting of a trio of musos who have been entertaining crowds since 2008. With a focus on weddings, corporate events, festivals and birthday parties these guys travel across South Africa, bringing their infectious energy to every performance.

The Morning After is known for their dynamic stage presence, impressive musical skills, and ability to get the party started. If you're looking for a band that will keep your guests dancing all night long, The Morning After is the perfect choice. Comprised of a dynamic trio of musicians; three best mates Dirk, Gerhard and Shannon have been making music together on and off since 1998 before officially starting THE MORNING AFTER (also known as TMA) in 2008. The guys didn't so much choose the name "THE MORNING AFTER" as have it given to them by some of their initial fans having regularly partied too much the night before. The name just stuck after that and TMA have been living up to their name ever since! Just ask anyone who's ever seen them live!

The Morning After has since become South Africa's premier party function band. With an average of 150 gigs per year across the country these guys specialize in unforgettable live entertainment from weddings and corporate events to festivals, birthdays and house parties. Whether you're planning a wedding, corporate event, or any special occasion, TMA will keep your guests dancing all night long. With their diverse repertoire of music spanning multiple genres and decades, they know how to get the party started and keep it going.

With a passion for music and a commitment to excellence, book them now and experience the unforgettable energy and excitement of THE MORNING AFTER!
